WERE FORCED TO RIDEA tale of pitiless stone was told by Ezequiel Garcia and Bernardo Yarza, late of Old Mexico, when ar-aigned for vagrancy before the J. P. court this morning. According to the prisoners, who were taken up by Santa Fe special officers last night, they had been forced by an insatiate brakeman to ride upon the train. It was the first time they had ever been on a train, as they much preferred to walk and always got around that way in Old Mexico.As they were pursuing their usual method of locomotion a freight train drove up behind them, and the brakeman that was pushing them demanded he get on and ride. Later he pitilessly charged them $2.40 fare, the amount being by a happy coincidence the precise sum they had in their possession at the time.They were ordered to spend ten days in the city jail.

PEDIGREE HOGS

THRIVE ON MELONS

(Special Correspondence to the Herald)

Las Cruces, N. M., Aug. 11.—D. L.
Baker, the real estate man and general farmer, is raising a fine bunch of pedigree hogs, which he is giving every attention possible. All of thecaballoques that are not in a condition to ship are fed to the hogs and Mr. Baker states that the culs of this one crop will support the hogs for two months, although a little grain helps to keep the animals in more perfect condition. Thousands of melons go to waste at this time of the year when they could all be utilized in this way.Specials for Friday
